2009 INTERNATIONAL CHARDONNAY CHALLENGE

Welcome to one of the world's most unique wine competitions – the 2009 International Chardonnay Challenge [ICC]. It is an event that celebrates a single variety – the not-so-modest chardonnay.

The ICC is more than just a competition – it is a celebration of a single variety that has the adoration of so many. From winemakers who celebrate the versatility of chardonnay to wine aficionados who toast both the traditional and new trends, through to the many who appreciate it for everything it offers. In it's 10th year, the ICC had over 500 chardonnay's entered from all over the world.

Headed by New Zealand's only onshore-based female master of wine Jane Skilton, the judging panel features Australians Bill Hardy and Mike DeGaris, Canadian Rod Phillips and top New Zealand vintners John Hancock, Steve Voysey, Chris Scott, Simon Nunns, Dave McKee and Kim Crawford.
